

Extract from the University Charter

CHAPTER III - MISSION AND OBJECTIVES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Article 13 – The mission of the University is to generate and transfer knowledge through:

- a) advanced scientific research;
- b) initial and ongoing training at undergraduate and postgraduate level to develop and improve personal, job seeking skills and acquire the skills needed for socio-economic, cultural and administrative environment;
- c) continuing education and training of adults;

Article 14 – In completion of the mission assumed, the University has the following objectives:

- a) providing and developing resources and tools necessary to conduct educational training process and scientific research to competitive benchmarks in National Area and the European Higher Education Area, defined by the Bologna Declaration (1999) and national legislation;
- b) organizing and carrying out specific activities for graduate and postgraduate studies, with reference to standards specific to each area and study program;
- c) organization of master programmes and doctoral schools, promoting the values of scientific, cultural and national and universal spirituality;
- d) application of the principle of student-centered education;
- e) development of partnerships with institutions, authorities, economic and social units in Romania and other countries in order to organize and adapt curricula and research to benchmarks specific to qualifications and socio-economic requirements of national and European environment;
- f) self-assessment and evaluation of teaching and scientific research activities, taking into account standards and performance indicators to ensure quality of education and research;
- g) implementation of an efficient and transparent institutional management based on the principles of university autonomy, quality assurance, efficiency and public accountability;
- h) developing programs for national and international mobility of students, teachers and scientific research staff;
- i) promoting quality culture in university life and provide a suitable environment for professional development of university community members based on academic ethics compliance;
- j) cultivation of tradition of free thinking, democratic and academic spirit;
- k) respect for the rights and fundamental human freedoms and the principle of supremacy of the law.