FACULTY OF DENTAL MEDICINE

BACHELOR’S DEGREE AND DISSERTATION EXAMINATION ORGANIZATION AND CONDUCT REGULATION FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022-2023

CHAPTER I General provisions

Art. 1. At “Titu Maiorescu” University (TMU), the first cycle of undergraduate studies is completed with a bachelor's degree examination, the second cycle of master's degree studies is completed with a dissertation examination, and the third cycle of doctoral studies is completed with the public presentation of the doctoral thesis in front of the doctoral thesis public presentation committee.

Art. 2. The bachelor's degree and dissertation examinations, hereinafter referred to as final examinations, shall be conducted in accordance with Art. 140,143,145,152,157 of the Law No. 1 on National Education, with subsequent additions and amendments, according to the Framework Regulation for the organization and conduct of bachelor's degree / dissertation examinations, approved by Order of the Minister of Education and this Regulation.

Art. 3. (1) Only persons who are graduates, i.e. those who have fully completed the curriculum for the respective cycle of university studies and study programme, may register for the final examination.

(2) For any study programme, the graduation examination is held under the same conditions for all graduates, only within the TMU, regardless of the course of study completed or the higher education institution graduated.

(3) By exception to the provisions of para. (2), for special situations, duly justified, the TMU may hold the bachelor's degree examinations in locations belonging to the higher education institutions from which the candidates come, on the basis of a protocol concluded between the two higher education institutions, with the approval of the Ministry of Education.

(4) The fees for taking the final examinations are provided for in the Fee nomenclature regulation, approved annually by the Board of Directors and the TMU Senate and are not refunded except in special cases (accidents, medical problems, death, social events, etc.), with a penalty set by the Fee nomenclature regulation.

(5) In the event that the candidate gives written notice of non-attendance at the bachelor's degree examination at least 24 hours in advance, the fee may be deferred to the next session upon written request.

Art. 4. (1) The final examinations for the completion of studies in Postgraduate programmes shall be conducted on the basis of their own regulations.

CHAPTER II

Organisation of the Final Examinations

Art. 5. (1) The Faculty of Dental Medicine organizes and conducts the bachelor's degree examination for its own graduates.

(2) The Faculty of Dental Medicine may organize and conduct bachelor's degree exams for graduates of other accredited or provisionally authorized higher education institutions within the bachelor's degree programs of Dental Medicine and Dental Technology, under the conditions provided for in this regulation, in compliance with the legal provisions.

Art. 6. The Faculty of Dental Medicine does not organize selection exams for graduates coming from higher education institutions or/and study programmes that have been liquidated or wound up and, consequently, does not organize bachelor's degree exams for these graduates.

Art. 7. (1) Own graduates of the Dental Medicine, Dental Medicine in English and Dental Technology bachelor's degree programs shall register and take the bachelor's examination at the Faculty of Dental Medicine of TMU.

(2) Graduates of bachelor's degree programs authorized to operate provisionally, for which TMU has accredited bachelor's degree programs in the same field of study, shall take the bachelor's degree exam with committees made up of professors of the corresponding accredited degree programs, in accordance with the provisions of Article 22.

(3) Upon request, own graduates of accredited bachelor's degree programmes may register and take the bachelor's degree examination at another accredited organising university, with the approval of the TMU Senate and the Senate of the organising university, after the opinion of the Boards of Directors. In this case, the graduate pays a fee for the preparation of the file required for registration, provided for in the Fee nomenclature regulation.

Art. 8. Graduates of an accredited higher education institution may register and take the bachelor's degree examination at TMU, under the conditions set out in Art. 3, with the approval of the Senates of the two higher education institutions, after the endorsement of the Boards of Directors.

Art. 9. (1) The TMU's Faculty of Dental Medicine may organize and conduct the bachelor's degree examination for graduates from provisionally authorized higher education institutions, under the conditions set forth in Art. 3, on the basis of a protocol concluded between the TMU and the respective higher education institution, with the approval of the University Senates, after the endorsement of the Boards of Directors.

(2) The registration of the graduates referred to in paragraph 1. (1) shall be carried out by the higher education institution they attended, on the basis of the protocol concluded between the TMU and the respective higher education institution, in compliance with the legal provisions in force.

Art. 10. The TMU's Faculty of Dental Medicine organizes and conducts the dissertation examination only for its own graduates.

Art. 11. (1) For the graduates of the current class, the final exams may be organized in three sessions, within the periods established by the Senate, two sessions during the current academic year - June-July and September - and one session in February of the following academic year.

(2) Graduates of previous classes may register for the final examinations in the sessions scheduled for the current class.

CHAPTER III Final examination tests

Art. 12. The bachelor's degree examination at the Faculty of Dental Medicine consists of two parts, as follows:

- a) test 1: assessment of fundamental and specialized knowledge;
- b) test 2: presentation and submission of the bachelor's degree thesis.

Art. 13 (1) For the Dental Medicine, Dental Medicine in English and Dental Technology study programmes, test 1 has two components: a written paper with multiple-choice questions and a specialized practical examination.

(2) The written test consists of filling in a 100-question multiple-choice test. Each question has five possible answers, only one of which contains the correct answer. Each correct answer is awarded one mark and the score obtained is converted into a mark:

$$\text{Mark} = \frac{\text{score achieved}}{10}$$

(3) For the Dental Medicine study programme, the written examination topics are identical to the topics of the previous year's residency admission exam, with the related bibliography (<http://rezidentiat.ms.ro>).

(4) For the English Dental Medicine study programme, the written examination topics are determined by the Faculty Council and published on the website www.utm.ro.

(5) For the Dental Technology study programme, the Faculty Council determines the topics of the specialized subjects and their related bibliography.

(6) For the Dental Medicine and English Dental Medicine study programmes, the specialized practical assessment consists of the paraclinical investigation of a study model and an orthopantomogram, making a diagnosis and establishing treatment options.

(7) For the Dental Technology study programme; the practical specialized assessment consists of the presentation of the technical scale carried out in the third year of study.

Art. 14. The dissertation examination consists of a single test, namely the presentation and submission of the dissertation thesis.

Art. 15. (1) The presentation and submission of the bachelor's degree/dissertation thesis is public.

(2) In the case of face-to-face examinations referred to in Article 12, they shall be held in the presence of the examination committee and the examinee at the same place and time.

Art. 16. (1) The marks of the examination committee members shall be whole numbers from 10 (ten) to 1 (one).

(2) The pass mark for each test or component shall be at least 5 (five). With the exception of the written tests, the pass mark for the tests is the arithmetical average of the marks awarded by the members of the respective examination committee.

(3) For the Dental Medicine, English Dental Medicine and Dental Technology study programmes, the mark obtained for test 1 is the arithmetic mean of the marks obtained in the written paper and the practical examination, and the mark obtained at the bachelor's degree examination is the arithmetic mean of the mark obtained for test 1 and the mark obtained for test 2.

(4) The mark of the dissertation examination is the arithmetic mean of the marks of the examination committee members.

(5) The arithmetical averages referred to in paragraphs (2) to (4) shall be calculated with two decimals without rounding.

(6) The pass mark of the bachelor's degree /dissertation examination must be at least 6 (six).

(7) The deliberations of the committees on the determination of the bachelor's degree /dissertation examination results are not public.

Art. 17. In the case of the bachelor's degree examination, each component of test 1 is eliminatory. In the case of failure to pass the test 2, the examination will be repeated in its entirety in a subsequent session, with payment by the candidate of the examination fee, in the amount established by the Fee nomenclature regulation.

Art. 18. The bachelor's degree/dissertation papers must be submitted for examination accompanied by an electronic version (CD, memory stick).

Art. 19. (1) The Faculty of Dental Medicine takes the following measures to ensure the originality of the bachelor's degree/dissertation thesis' content:

(a) the bachelor's degree / dissertation thesis will be accepted for examination accompanied by the candidate's affidavit on the originality of the thesis' content (ANNEX 1, ANNEX 2);

(b) all bachelor's degree /dissertation thesis will be checked using an anti-plagiarism program provided by TMU;

(c) the scientific supervisors of the bachelor's degree /dissertation thesis may request verification of the thesis with the help of an anti-plagiarism program recognized by the CNATDCU, based on the Procedure for the anti-plagiarism verification of bachelor's degree /dissertation thesis, approved by the TMU Senate.

(d) each department enters the bachelor's degree /dissertation thesis in its database;

(e) the bachelor's degree/dissertation thesis are kept in the TMU Archive for a period of 5 years.

(2) The marketing of scientific papers with a view to facilitating the falsification by the purchaser of the authorship of a bachelor's degree / dissertation paper is prohibited.

Art. 20 (1) The scientific advisors of bachelor's degree thesis may include assistant professors, according to the law.

(2) Scientific advisors of dissertations must have at least the academic title of lecturer.

CHAPTER IV

Committees for the final examinations

Art. 21. (1) The nominal composition of the final examination committees shall be proposed by the Faculty Council, approved by the Senate and appointed by decision of the President. The Vice-President in charge of education shall ensure that an excerpt of the President's decision is drawn up and sent to the Dean of the Faculty.

(2) The members of the final examination committees cannot be in a relationship of spouses, relatives or kinship up to the second degree inclusive with the examinees or with each other, according to the law.

Art. 22. (1) For each final examination session, a Central organizing committee shall be established and shall serve at the TMU level, consisting of the President, as chairperson, the Vice-President responsible for the educational activity, a Deputy Chairman of the Board of Directors, the University Registrar, the Director of the IT Department and the Administrative Director.

(2) A Faculty organizing committee shall be established and shall serve at the level of the Faculty of Dental Medicine, consisting of the Dean, as Chairman, the Vice-Deans, the Department Director, other faculty teaching staff, if any, and the Faculty Chief Registrar.

Art. 23. (1) For each session of the final examinations, the following committees shall be established and operate within the Faculty of Dental Medicine, by study programmes:

- (a) Committee for the elaboration of the topics and marking scales for the written papers;
- (b) Committee for the marking of written papers;
- (c) Committee for the review and resolution of appeals made to the results of the written examinations. The members of the appeal review and resolution committee may not be members of the marking committee;
- (d) Committees for the submission of the bachelor's degree/dissertation thesis;
- (e) Committees for the submission of the specialized practical examination.

(2) Each committee referred to in paragraph (1) shall be made of a chairperson, members and a secretary, who shall be academic staff. The chairperson of the committee shall be at least a university principal lecturer. The secretary of the committee shall have only document management duties.

(3) The nominal composition of the committees referred to in paragraph (1) shall be proposed by the Faculty Councils, approved by the Senate and appointed by decision of the President. The Vice-President responsible for educational activity shall ensure that an excerpt of the President's decision is drawn up and sent to the Dean of the Faculty.

(4) The nominal composition of the committees referred to in paragraph (1) shall be published on the website www.utm.ro.

CHAPTER VI

Conduct of the final examinations

Art. 27. (1) The written test for the bachelor's degree exam shall be conducted as follows:

- a) the faculty organising committee shall display on the notice board of the faculty/on the web page - bachelor's degree/master's degree examination, the anonymised lists (using the anonymisation algorithm provided for in art. 35) with the candidates' distribution in the examination rooms at least 24 hours before the day on which the written examination is held;
- (b) candidates are required to check the accuracy of the data entered on the displayed lists and to notify the organising committee of any discrepancies;
- c) candidates are admitted to the examination rooms one hour before the start of the examination on the basis of the table displayed on the room door, under the supervision of the teachers responsible for conducting the examination in that room. Candidates are admitted to the examination rooms and seated in their desks in compliance with all the health and safety rules in force at the time of the examination;
- d) upon entering the examination room, examinees must identify themselves with their ID card/passport; after the time set for the start of the examination, examinees are not allowed to enter the examination rooms;
- e) candidates are not allowed to enter the examination room with any technical means of information and communication;
- f) candidates are seated in the examination room in alphabetical order and at a distance of one seat from each other, according to the candidates' examination cards previously affixed on the desks by the faculty organising committee;
- g) the committee responsible for drawing up the exam topics and marking scales shall draw up at least two sets of topics, which shall be placed in envelopes stamped with the faculty stamp, signed by the chairman of the organising committee and kept in safe custody at the dean's office; the number of topics in each set shall be determined by the Faculty Council;

h) on the day before the test, the organising committee, together with the committee responsible for drawing up the topics and marking scales, will draw lots for one of the sets of topics, in order to be multiplied as question lists/booklets;

i) the question lists/booklets are placed in envelopes labelled by room, stamped with the faculty stamp and signed by the chairperson of the faculty bachelor's degree committee.

j) the organising committee is responsible for the security of keeping the examination topics until they are distributed to the exam rooms;

k) the chairman of the organising committee hands the envelope with the examination topics to the person in charge of the room, who unseals the envelope in front of all the candidates in the room, after allowing any candidate who wishes to do so, to check the integrity of the stamp and signature on the envelope;

l) the examination shall last no more than 3 hours, starting from the time when the topics have been distributed and checked for accuracy;

(2) During the written test, candidates are not allowed to communicate with each other or with the supervisors.

(3) Candidates who infringe the prohibition laid down in paragraph (1)(e) and those who attempt to cheat during the examination will be eliminated from the examination room and their paper will receive the mark 1 (one). The supervisor will enter the mention "excluded from the examination" within the candidates' table opposite the name of the candidate found to be in one of these cases and will draw up a report signed by the supervisor and the candidate concerned; if the candidate refuses to sign, the report will be countersigned by one of the supervisors.

(4) Leaving the room during the examination for physiological reasons, with the declared intention of returning to the room, may only be done by one of the supervisors accompanying the candidate; this situation may not extend the duration of the examination.

(5) The final leaving of the examination room can be done at least 30 minutes after the communication of the topics.

(6) In the case of multiple-choice questions, the answer forms must be completed without erasures or corrections that could lead to misinterpretation, according to the following rules:

(a) dark blue pen/pencil must be used for completion; the use of erasable pens is prohibited;

(b) to mark the answer considered correct, fill in the box with an X and leave the other boxes blank.

(7) Candidates who wish to transcribe their work may do so only within the time limit set for the examination. To this end, they will be given new examination papers/answer forms and those used initially will be cancelled on the spot by the room head, under his/her signature; the cancelled examination papers/answer forms will be handed over to the committee and their contents will not be taken into account.

(8) Only paper sheets with the faculty stamp received from the supervisors may be used for the draft answer sheet.

(9) At the end of the examination time, the candidates will stop writing and will remain in their seats, waiting to be called for handing in the paper. The candidate handing over the paper shall submit his/her identity card and shall sign in the nominal table kept by the room head.

(10) When collecting the answer forms, the room head shall check how they have been completed. If it is found that no box has been ticked or more than one box has been ticked for a question, the room head shall cancel that answer by crossing out a red horizontal line on the answer form.

(11) The room head shall sign the paper in the corner that is to be sealed, after checking the accuracy of the data given by the candidate with regard to his/her name, the form header on the paper header and the multiple-choice test symbol.

(12) It is forbidden for the candidate to leave the room with any other documents received from the supervisory committee.

(13) The drafts used by candidates are not marked and must be handed in to the room head with the paper for destruction at a later date.

(14) The marking scales shall be made available not later than 2 hours after the start of the examination.

Art.28. Once the written examination ends, the following activities shall be carried out:

a) the room head hands in the papers and the attendance sheet for the supervisors (ANNEX 10) to the secretary of the faculty organising committee, by means of an official report (ANNEX 9), together with all the other documents resulting from the actual examination;

b) the papers received by the secretary of the organising committee are grouped according to the multiple-choice test symbol, are mixed within the same group, and are stamped and numbered;

c) the stamped and numbered papers are handed in by the chairman of the faculty organising committee to the markers, under signature, together with the marking slips (ANNEX 11);

d) the answers of the graduates are assessed on the basis of a score, which is converted into marks from 1 (one) to 10 (ten) in accordance with Article 13 (2);

e) the mark awarded by the marker shall be recorded on the marking slip, signed by the marker.

f) each answer form is assessed independently by two members of the marking committee; the marks are recorded by each assessor in a separate slip, under his/her signature; if there are no discrepancies between the two assessments, the mark is recorded in the mark book (APPENDIX 12), signed by both markers.

g) if there is a discrepancy between the two assessments, the paper will be re-assessed by another member of the marking committee appointed by the chairman of the latter; the mark of the third marker will be recorded on a separate marking slip signed by the marker and will be final; the mark of the third marker will also be recorded in the mark book under his/her signature.

h) The marks are written on the papers in red pen/pencil and signed by the chairman of the faculty organising committee;

- i) the chairman of the faculty organising committee, having ascertained that all the procedures for assessing the papers have been completed, shall proceed to unseal them. The members of the faculty organising committee complete and sign the examination register (ANNEX 13, ANNEX 14).
- j) the lists of the provisional results of the written examination are signed by the chairman of the organising committee and displayed at the faculty's premises no later than 24 hours after the examination has ended.

Art. 29. The specific component of test 1 (Practical specialized examination) is an oral/practical specialized examination, which is conducted as follows:

- a) graduates arrive, on the day and at the time displayed at the dean's office, in front of the practical examination committee;
- b) each member of the committee assigns a mark from 1 (one) to 10 (ten), and the final mark is the arithmetic average of these marks, calculated with two decimals, without rounding;
- c) the marks are recorded in the examination register and signed by all members of the committee;
- d) the lists of the results of the practical specialized examination shall be signed by the chairman of the faculty organising committee and displayed at the faculty's premises no later than 24 hours after the examination has been completed.

Art. 30. The presentation and submission of the bachelor's degree / dissertation thesis are carried out as follows:

- a) the graduates arrive, on the day and at the time displayed at the Dean's office, in front of the committee responsible for the submission of the bachelor's degree / dissertation thesis;
- b) each member of the committee assigns a mark from 10 (ten) to 1 (one), and the final mark is the arithmetic average of these marks, calculated with two decimals, without rounding;
- c) each member of the examination committee shall sign the examination register;
- d) the scientific advisor of the bachelor's degree thesis who is not a member of the examination committee may participate in the presentation and submission of the bachelor's degree thesis without the right to mark it.
- e) the lists with the results of the second examination shall be signed by the chairman of the organising committee and displayed at the faculty's premises no later than 24 hours after the end of the examination.

Art. 31. (1) Based on the decision of the Faculty Council, oral exams may be held online, using the Microsoft Teams platform. All members of the examining committee must be present simultaneously on the platform throughout the oral exam. The graduate is required to have the video camera and microphone on throughout the examination.

(2) The online examination is fully recorded for each candidate and archived at the faculty level. The secretary of the admission committee is responsible for recording and archiving. The recording remains confidential.

(3) The candidate is required to agree in writing to the online registration of the test as a part of the application file (ANNEX 15).

(4) Before the start of the examination, the candidate is required to identify himself/herself by showing his/her identity card to the video camera.

(5) It is forbidden during the online examination:

- the presence/access of another person in the place where the graduate is taking the test;
- communicating with any other person during the examination other than the members of the committee;
- recording of the candidate's presentation of the test;
- sharing the candidate's screen with other people;
- the candidate leaving the examination room;
- interruption of the examination by the candidate.

(6) Failure to comply with any of the prohibitions referred to in paragraph (5) shall result in the interruption of the examination and notification of its fraud.

(7) If for technical reasons (power failure, lack of internet connection, etc.) the candidate is unable to access the platform, the examination committee may approve rescheduling of the test to another time during that day without disturbing existing schedules.

Art. 32. (1) Any appeals concerning the results of the written examination shall be sent to the e-mail address of the Faculty of Dental Medicine within 24 hours of the results being displayed. After this deadline it is no longer possible to contest the results of the written tests. Appeals will be considered and resolved within a maximum of 24 hours from the final date of appeal submission by the members of the Appeal Review and Resolution Committee. Candidates may only appeal against their own results. In their appeal, contestants must state their surname from their birth certificate, father's initial(s) and first name(s).

(2) Appeals are dealt with exclusively at faculty level and the decisions of the Appeal Review and Resolution Committees are final.

(3) If, following re-marking, the mark obtained initially in the written test is altered by the appeal committee, a re-marking report is completed (ANNEX 16).

(4) The results obtained in the oral/practical tests may not be appealed.

Art. 33. The faculty organising committee draws up the final lists with the results of the written examination, generated after the resolution of appeals.

Art. 34. The Faculty Organising Committee shall draw up the bachelor's degree / dissertation examination results lists. The lists shall be signed by the Dean of the Faculty and endorsed by the President of the University. The lists shall be generated in two versions: anonymised (using the anonymisation algorithm provided for in Art. 35) and non-anonymised. The anonymised lists shall be displayed on the faculties' bachelor's degree web pages,

Art. 35. (1) The anonymisation algorithm referred to in Art. 34 is as follows:
