GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art.1. This Regulation is drawn up in accordance with the provisions of the following regulatory documents:

- Titu Maiorescu University Charter;
- Titu Maiorescu University Organizational and Operational Regulation;
- Regulation on the students' professional activity under the European credit transfer system;
- Guidelines for granting scholarships and other types of material support to students;
- The Titu Maiorescu University's student hostel organizational and operational regulation.
- TMU's fee-related internal rules.

Art.2.

2.1. This Regulation sets out the amount of fees, deadlines and methods of payment of tuition fees and special fees, grouped by category, as follows: tuition fees, admission fees, final examination fees, other special fees related to admission, withdrawal from study programmes, mobility, re-enrolment, school results, archive, accommodation in the student hostel, for all levels, programmes and types of studies, for students who are Romanian citizens, citizens of European Union Member States, citizens of European Economic Area countries (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and of the Swiss Confederation, foreign citizens with the status of "Romanians from all over the world", foreign citizens under subsidiary protection, stateless persons, citizens of third countries (from outside the European Union), as well as the amount of teaching and research vacancies application fees.

2.2. The fees provided for in this Regulation may be paid as follows:

a) in Lei, by candidates/students who are Romanian citizens, citizens of European Union Member States, citizens of countries belonging to the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and of the Swiss Confederation, foreign citizens who have the status of "Romanians from all over the world", foreign citizens under subsidiary protection, stateless persons, who may pay by the following means:

- by cash at the University cashier's office,
- by POS at the University cashier's office,
- online via the University's Fee Portal,
- by cash, at Banca Transilvania, using a pre-printed form,
- by bank transfer (payment order/online transfer) to the following account R090BTRL04301202N01816XX opened with Banca Transilvania, or to the account R049RNCB0546029228350001 opened with BCR;

b) in Euro, only by applicants/students who are third-country nationals (from outside the European Union), who can pay using the following means:

- online through the University's Fee Portal,
- by bank transfer (payment order/online transfer) to the following account RO65BTRL04304202N01816XX opened with Banca Transilvania or to the account RO03RNCB0074029228350276 opened with BCR.

Art.3.

3.1. The admission fees (for the academic year 2023-2024) and other special fees related to the admission process for the academic year 2023-2024 apply to the candidates/students/candidates admitted in the first year of studies (bachelor's degree, master's degree, PhD programmes, residency, postgraduate courses) for the academic year 2023-2024, fee-paying residents, postgraduate students, trainees and students who, during the academic year 2023-2024, continue/resume their studies (years II-VI).

3.2. The graduation/certification examination fees apply to graduates completing their degree programme in the academic year 2023-2024 and to graduates who have previously completed a degree programme and who apply for the graduation/certification examination in the academic year 2023-2024.

3.3. As an exception to the provisions of Article 3.1., the mobility fees/withdrawal fees for enrolment to other educational institutions, as set out in Chapter VIII, paragraph 8.3.5. apply to students who, during the academic year 2023-2024, apply for withdrawal for enrolment to other educational institutions, i.e. mobility application.

Art.4.

4.1. Tuition fees shall be paid by students either in full or by instalments, with the exception of students who are foreign nationals of third countries, who are required to pay the full tuition fee at the beginning of the academic year, as provided for in Art. 45 para. (3) letter a) point ii) of GEO no. 194/2002 on the regime of foreigners in Romania, republished.

4.2. if the tuition fee is paid by instalments, payment shall be made by the deadlines established for each category, and for payments made by bank transfer, the payer must ensure that the amount has been credited to the University's account no later than the due date; otherwise, penalties will be charged, according to art. 5 of this Regulation.

Art.5. Tuition fees/instalments not paid in full by the due date shall generate an outstanding debt, for which late payment penalties shall be calculated for each calendar day of delay, with payment of the debts being made correlatively (debt and related penalty), according to their age. The amount of the penalties for late payment shall be as follows:

- 0.3% per calendar day of delay of the outstanding tuition fee for all university study programmes, except for study programmes in the field of Health, organised by the Faculties of Medicine, Dental Medicine, Pharmacy and Nursing Tg. Jiu;
- 0,1% per calendar day of delay of the outstanding tuition fee for the study programs organized by the faculties of Medicine, Dental Medicine, Pharmacy and Nursing of Tg. Jiu.

Art.6.

6.1. Late payment penalties shall be calculated until 30 September 2024, the penalty percentage being applied for each calendar day of delay to the amounts not paid on the due dates; the total amount of payment, thus calculated, may not exceed twice the amount of the tuition fee for the concerned academic year.

6.2. In the winter examination session, only students who have paid the tuition fee instalments due for the current academic year can sit the exams, and in the summer examination session only students who have paid the full tuition fee for the current academic year (including instalment IV), master students who have paid the full tuition fee for the current academic year (including instalment III) can sit the exams.

Art.7.

7.1. Discounts on the annual tuition fee may be granted, upon request, to students who meet the criteria and the procedure for granting them, set out in the Guidelines for granting scholarships and other types of material support to students.

7.2. Deferrals/staggered payment of tuition fees may be granted upon request, with or without the charging of penalties, with the approval of the Dean of the Faculty and the approval of the Board of Directors.

Art.8. The special fees referred to in Chapter VIII, points 5 and 7, shall be charged only on the basis of a document issued by the Faculty Secretary's Office/Study Documents Office, either in written or electronic format (under the signature of the Chief Secretary, as appropriate).

Art.9.

9.1. The fees provided for in Chapters I, II and IV (relating to tuition fees for Romanian citizens, EU citizens, foreign citizens who have the status of "Romanians from all over the world", foreign citizens under subsidiary protection, stateless persons) are denominated in Euro; their payment shall be made in lei, according to the BNR exchange rate valid on the day of the payment, in the manner listed in Art. 2, point 2.2, letter a).

9.2. The fees provided for in Chapters I, II and IV apply to students who are Romanian citizens, citizens of the Member States of the European Union, citizens of countries belonging to the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and of the Swiss Confederation, foreign citizens who have the status of "Romanians from all over the world", foreign citizens under subsidiary protection, stateless persons. By exception, students who are citizens of the Member States of the European Union, citizens of countries belonging to the European Economic Area (Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway) and of the Swiss Confederation may also pay these fees in euro, only by bank transfer to account RO65BTRL04304202N01816XX opened with Banca Transilvania or to account RO03RNCB0074029228350276 opened with BCR.

9.3. The fees provided for in Chapters VI and VII (relating to tuition fees for third-country nationals) are set in Euro, payable in Euro, in the manner provided for in Article 2, point 2.2. b) and apply only to third-country nationals (non-EU) students.

9.4. The fees provided for in Chapters III and V (relating to postgraduate programmes and DSPP) are in Euro, apply to all students, regardless of nationality and are payable in lei or Euro, depending on the student's citizenship, as provided above for each category.

9.5. The special fees, provided for in Chapter VIII, are denominated in lei and are payable in lei.

9.6. The fees provided for in Chapters VIII and X apply equally to all students, irrespective of citizenship. The payment method for Chapter X fees shall be governed by the student social services contract and the student hostel organizational and operational regulation.

9.7. The fees provided for in Chapter IX are denominated in lei and are payable in lei.

9.8. The first tuition fee for students coming by permanent mobility, between semesters, is half of the tuition fee for their current year of study. The tuition fees for the following academic years are as set out in this Regulation.
